This resource sheet is a database of ethical guidelines and principles applicable to archaeology collected from various institutions and organizations worldwide. Whether you are an experienced archaeologist, a researcher, or a student, this compilation serves as an informative reference, providing a broad range of perspectives on appropriate practices in archaeology.